

HENRY HOLMES SMITH

Create a shadow drawing by sketching the shapes of shadows and light from windows. You can overlap different shapes all on one page. Then add colour or tone.

Create an abstract image inspired by music. Try to imagine what colour, shape and size different sounds could represent. Then arrange the sounds to form patterns.

KYLE HENDERSON

Create a shattered building drawing. Find an image of an interesting building. Draw lots of diagonal lines on a piece of paper. Then draw different sections of the building in the different shapes in between the lines you have drawn.

CECIL TOUCHON

Create a letter collage using large letters cut out from magazines and news papers. Try to find colours, shapes and fonts that complement each other and arrange them into patterns.

MICHAEL CRAIG MARTIN

Create overlapping line drawings of everyday objects from around your home. Colour your drawing using bright contrasting colours and bold black outlines. You could even trace images you find in magazine and catalogues.

Create a scene similar to Stuart Davis work by adding collaged coloured paper or wallpaper. Then trace people from magazines or drawing them freehand using bold marker pens or coloured pencils.
